

PARENTAL ALIENATION STUDY GROUP THIRD INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, USA — September 12–14, 2019

This is the preeminent annual conference that addresses the causes, assessment, prevention, and interventions for parental alienation. Mental health and legal professionals and the public are invited. Also, researchers, writers, targeted parents and grandparents, and child advocates who are interested in high-conflict families and parental alienation. Day Two of the meeting (Friday, September 13) will feature separate tracks for parents, attorneys, researchers, and practitioners.

FEATURED SPEAKERS AND TOPICS ON DAY ONE OF PASG2019

Richard Warshak, Ph.D. – Keynote Address – Parental Alienation: What Is It?

Amy J. L. Baker, Ph.D. – Overview of the Science of Parental Alienation

Linda Gottlieb, LMFT, LCSW-R – Therapeutic Interventions for Parental Alienation

Steven Miller, M.D. – Parental Alienation is Counter-Intuitive!

William Bernet, M.D. – Recognition of Parental Alienation by Professional Organizations

Ashish Joshi, J.D., and Demosthenes Lorandos, Ph.D., J.D. – The Legal Landscape of Alienation

Morning events will occur from 8:30 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Afternoon events will occur from 1:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Lunch as well as morning and afternoon beverage breaks are included in the registration fee.

For more information and registration, visit <http://www.PASG2019.com>. An early bird discount is available for those who register by May 31, 2019, and use PASG2019EB (case sensitive) as a discount code during the registration process.

Philadelphia, the “City of Brotherly Love,” boasts world-class culture, dining, and historical attractions. It is home to museums such as the Philadelphia Museum of Art, the Rodin Museum, and The Barnes Foundation. The city offers unparalleled historical attractions, including the Liberty Bell and Independence Hall. For more information, <https://www.visitphilly.com/>.